Record Books

ISBN 13: 978 1 84634 146 5

Grandmother Remembers
A record book for a grandmother to create as a gift for her grandchild, with delicate floral illustrations throughout by Juliette Clarke. Through a series of centres, questions and photographs compiled by grandmother on guided pages, the book tracks progress through the generations, from when grandmother was a little girl, growing into a woman, a mother and then a grandmother, charting her feelings, reflections and personal changes through the different life stages, and then looking forward to her future aspirations for her grandchild. And by recording simple day-to-day likes and activities, it shows clearly the changes in life and society through the generations, and how we take for granted today what wasn't even a dream in 'the olden days'. It is ideal for that special grandmother-grandchild relationship, telling you all those naughty stories your parent won't admit to!

- Hardcover • 64 pages
- Trim Size 8 1/2" x 11"
- Carton quantity: 15
- Full color throughout
- $19.95

ISBN 13: 978 1 84634 147 2

To My Daughter with Love
This record book is designed for a mother to create perhaps the most valuable gift for her daughter: a record of her thoughts, hopes and wishes for her daughter as she grows up, that can one day be passed to her as a gift. With a starting point of the family tree linking the newborn into the past family generations, the mother uses guided pages to chart the family history and aspirations for the future; it's not just a record of facts, but an invaluable insight into the mother's mind, answering questions that a daughter may not dare to ask! So, the date and place of her parents' meeting and marriage are fixed, but the joy of love, and thoughts on the day, bring a smile and a tear to each mother as she fills in the book, and smiles of wonder from her daughter as she reads back to her mother's life before motherhood...
