

In the Presence of History

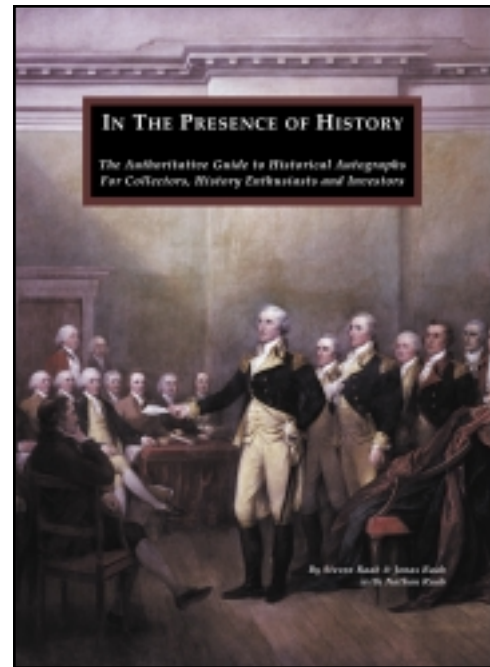

The Authoritative Guide to Historical Autographs for Collectors, History Enthusiasts and Investors

Steven Raab and Jonas Raab, with Nathan Raab

In the Presence of History is a compelling, behind-the-scenes look at history through the world of historical documents, manuscripts and autographs.

- The authoritative guide to autographs, covering scores of topics
- Hundreds of stories about the great men and women of history
- Most comprehensive color study of the autographs of U.S. Presidents ever published
- The tools people need to begin authenticating autographs for themselves
- Topical treatment of autographs on the Internet and autographs as investments
- Hundreds of color illustrations from the Raab archives, dynamically presented

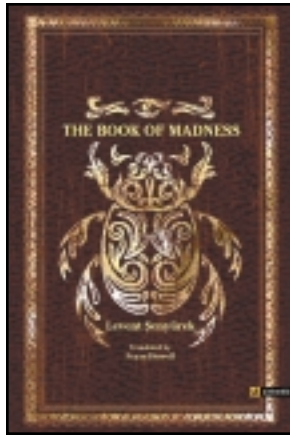

The authors of this work are principals of The Raab Collection located in Philadelphia, PA, which buys and sells autographs. Their firm has for over two decades handled some of the nation's most significant privately owned historical letters and documents, including Abraham Lincoln's signed order to blockade the South at the start of the Civil War and Theodore Roosevelt's letter first coining the phrase "Speak softly and carry a big stick." Moreover, relatives of famous Americans, such as Thomas Jefferson and Dwight Eisenhower, have come to the Raab Collection when seeking homes for their family heirlooms." Its website, www.raabcollection.com, is a popular stopping spot for people interested in both history and autographs.

THE DIAMOND PRESS

The Book of Madness

Levent Senyurek

Written for the discerning science fiction reader, the book races from the creation to apocalypse and from the ordinary to utter insanity, while the fire smoldering between the words may indeed set preconceptions alight. "He who doesn't lose himself doesn't understand or he who understands loses himself." Translated seamlessly by English writer and translator Feyza Howell.

Introducing Stephen Hawking, 4th Edition

J. P. McEvoy

Introducing Stephen Hawking is a brilliantly conceived introduction to Hawking's work, ranging from Einstein's Theory of Relativity to Black Holes and the Big Bang. It also explains Hawking's research into Quantum Gravity, which could emerge as a Theory of Everything.

The Toltec I Ching

64 Keys to Inspired Action in the New World

Martha Ramirez-Oropeza and William Douglas Horden

This easy to use new tool is for 3+ million readers of Toltec wisdom books (e.g., The Four Agreements); 275,000+ "Peaceful Warrior" (Dan Millman) readers; 42,000+ Daniel Pinchbeck 2012 readers; tens of thousands of I Ching aficionados, and people of hope worldwide.

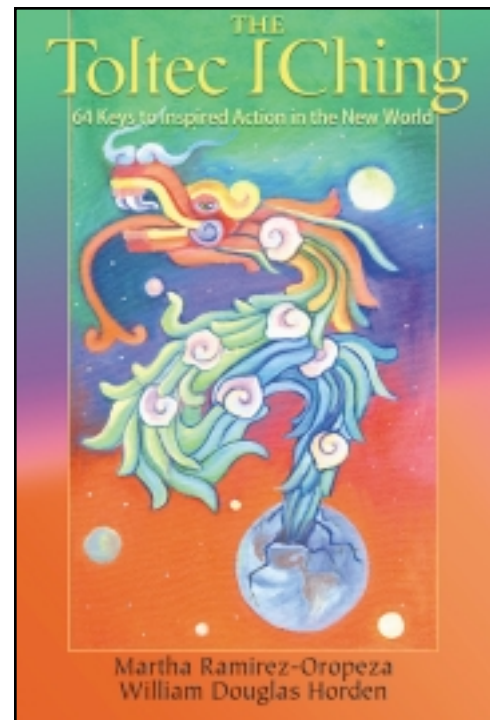

Sourced from common roots of Chinese and Mesoamerican tradition, it distills and updates ancient lessons for motivation and hope in modern life-situations. It can help you

- Thrive amidst injustice with integrity
- Master self-defeating attitudes
- Manage your inner responses to things beyond your control
- Engage inner potentials evolving in a situation
- Reframe how you see yourself, the situation, and the world
- Develop balanced, harmonious responses to events
- Effect changes that help people live in harmony with nature, spirit, and one another
- Enact the Four Agreements in your life

Symbolic indigenous images and lucid text energize, harmonize, and integrate the inquirer's feminine and masculine natures—a refreshing alternative to the masculine/aristocratic biases of previous I Chings. Try it for some fun, at the very least, when your rational mind is stumped, and you have to act anyway.

This book comes Smyth-sewn, on matte coated paper, with French flaps.

Well-known muralist/artist Martha Ramirez-Oropeza is a UCLA professor and cofounder of Nahuatl University in Ocotepc, Mexico. She apprenticed with David Siqueiros, one of Mexico's three great muralists. Her art expresses indigenous Mexican muralist tradition, using shifting perspectives, vibrant colors, and unexpected juxtapositions to rouse heart, mind, and spirit. She lives in Venice, California, and Ocotepc, Mexico. William Douglas Horden is an independent researcher of indigenous divinatory systems and a counselor for victims of child abuse. He lives in Roseburg, Oregon.

Criminal Psychology

A Beginner's Guide, 2nd Edition

Ray Bull, Charlotte Bilby, Claire Cooke, et al

How does the mind of a criminal work? How can you stop criminals from re-offending? What does being in prison do to your mind? From lie detection to psychological profiling, Professor Ray Bull and his team of experts demonstrate how understanding the mind is essential in the fight against criminality. Covering prisons, police methods, and eyewitness reliability, this book provides an authoritative introduction to the fascinating research underpinning modern criminal psychology.

Professor Ray Bull is Director of Postgraduate Courses in Forensic Psychology at University of Leicester, where his co-authors are all lecturers.
